Leadership Team Application

Teens Entering Grades 10, 11, 12 and
Graduated Fall of 2018

Summer Stretch is a service-oriented ministry program for middle school students entering grades seven through nine in the fall. As with everything we do in ministry at St. Ambrose, the primary goal of Summer Stretch is to foster a relationship between teens and Jesus Christ and His Church. This should be the goal, purpose, and mission of your service as a leader this summer.

Expectations for members of the Leadership Team will be as follows:

- ◇ Have a desire to share the Gospel with the middle schoolers in your group, as well as the people you serve each week.
- ◇ Have or commit to beginning or striving for a consistent daily prayer life.
- ◇ Display enthusiasm for all week to week activities at Summer Stretch.
- ◇ Form relationships with the middle school students in your small group by having meaningful interactions with them at all times, during service in the morning, afternoon activities, small group times, lunch and bus rides.
- ◇ Display appropriate behavior, especially in language, dress, and obedience. You are a role model for the middle school students.
- ◇ Be flexible and adaptable as plans change.
- ◇ Take responsibility not only for your own behavior, but the behavior of your small group.
- ◇ Take a leadership role each week in administrative tasks and organization of your small group.
- ◇ Get to know and work well with your co-leader that you are paired with.
- ◇ Arrive by 7:30AM and plan to leave no earlier than 5:00PM unless prearranged and approved by Bri.
- ◇ Attend a Leadership Team training session. (Dates found on Final Page.)
- ◇ Commit to attending all five Summer Stretch dates.
- ◇ Participate enthusiastically and appropriately in prayer, Mass and Adoration.
- ◇ Be comfortable and confident leading small group discussions on the talks and service activities each week corresponding to the theme of Catholic Social Teaching we are focusing on that day.

I _____, commit to fulfilling, to the best of my ability, the expectations listed above, in addition to any additional direction given to me by any St. Ambrose staff throughout the summer. I understand that failure to fulfill these expectations can result in my removal as a leader.
